

Tri-University Graduate Program - University of Guelph conference paper proposal template

January 1, 2018 [today's date]

[Your name, bolded]
[Your department and institution]
[Your email address]

Proposal for Research Paper
Tri-University History Conference [name of conference]
Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario [location of conference]
March 3, 2017-12-05 [date(s) of conference]

Title Phrase: Subtitle Phrase
[your paper's title, bolded]

Abstract

[your paper's abstract in one or two paragraphs with some of these components: topic and mode of analysis; historical context; primary or secondary sources; questions and findings. Abstract word count – see specifications of conference call for papers in question, but in general 150-200 words, absolute maximum 250 words]

Bio

[your name] is an M.A. student in History at the University of Guelph. Her research concerns [name topic, historical context or important sources or questions]
[biographical statement about you, maximum two sentences]

This proposal should not be longer than what fits on a single sheet of paper!