

Publications

Results of research undertaken in the RDCs are published in various formats and types of publications. Regularly updated, our searchable CRDCN Bibliography [1] promotes quick and easy access to publications. To facilitate knowledge transfer, the CRDCN also publishes research syntheses [2] and reports as well as research highlights, listed under "CRDCN publications" and a quarterly newsletter [3]. Other publications include relevant publications by our partners and compatible research organizations.
