

Workplace Harassment Prevention Program

Policy Statement

The University of Guelph has instituted a Workplace Harassment Prevention policy, 851.01.18, promoting a workplace that is harassment free. The Workplace Harassment Prevention Program ("Program") supports this Policy.

Reporting Procedures

Any member of the University community who has reason to believe that s/he has been treated in a manner that violates the Workplace Harassment Prevention Policy 851.01.18, or who witnesses behaviour that might contravene this Policy, is encouraged to contact their supervisor or a person in authority.

Workers:

- (a) Workers who believe they have been treated in a manner that violates the Policy should contact their supervisor, or in the case of an allegation against a supervisor, a person in authority.
- (b) Immediately make it clear to the individual that his/her behavior or language is not welcome. If uncomfortable approaching the individual directly, contact your supervisor, or in the case of an allegation against a supervisor, a person in authority for assistance.
- (c) Complete a Workplace Harassment Reporting Form and submit it to Occupational Health and Wellness (OHW).

Supervisors:

- (a) If a worker contacts you regarding an alleged case of workplace harassment, take appropriate steps to address the situation.
- (b) Complete the Workplace Harassment Reporting Form [1] with the worker and submit to Occupational Health & Wellness.

Workplace Harassment Report Intake and Investigation

All Workplace Harassment Reporting forms received by OHW will be forwarded to the appropriate until as follows:

Contact: <https://cso.uoguelph.ca/> [6] at (519) 824-4120 extension 2000 at info@cso.uoguelph.ca [7]

The person(s) conducting the investigation will gather all relevant information from the appropriate parties prior to rendering a decision, determination and/or recommendation. The Respondent (alleged harasser) will be given the opportunity to respond to the specific allegations raised by the worker.

Information obtained about a complaint or incident of workplace harassment, including identifying information about any individuals involved, will not be disclosed unless disclosure is necessary to protect the worker, investigate, take corrective action or otherwise as required by law.

Reporting

The Worker, who allegedly experienced the workplace harassment and the Respondent, if s/he is a worker of the University, will be informed in writing of the results of the investigation and any corrective action taken or that will be taken by the University to address workplace harassment.
