Description

The Youth Employment and Skills Program provides a wage subsidy to employers who hire youth for agricultural jobs.

Examples of typical projects may include:

- farmers who wish to hire farm workers for planting and harvesting crops or managing livestock
- agricultural businesses, such as greenhouses, orchards, vineyards, vegetable producers who have labor needs
- small businesses who supply agricultural products or services
- food processors in need of labor

Eligibility

Eligible employers are agricultural related organizations such as farmers, food processors and agricultural related non-governmental organizations (NGOs) who can offer opportunities that will give youth:

- agriculture career-related work experiences and skills in Canada.

These organizations may be from:

- industry
- not-for-profit organizations
- provincial and municipal governments
- associations
- boards
- councils
- universities

Eligible employers are responsible for hiring and verifying the eligibility of participants for the Youth Employment and Skills activities.

To qualify, the employee must be:

- 30 years or younger when they started the internship
- unemployed or underemployed, a student, or a previous intern of any Youth Employment and Skills Strategy (YESS) program
- a Canadian citizen or permanent resident

Youth facing barriers includes:

- living with a disability
- being Indigenous
- living in a low income household [2]
- being a single parent
- residing in a remote location
- living with family care responsibilities
- coming out of, or have involvement with the justice system
- other barriers approved on a case by case basis

Note: Eligible applicants must be legal entities capable of entering into legally binding agreements

Funding Availability

The program offers support for 50% of wages to a maximum of $14,000. Additionally, the program offers 100% of costs for relocation to a maximum of $5,000 if the employee must relocate for the position.

If approved, the following employers are eligible to receive 80% of total eligible costs, up to a maximum of $14,000:

- Indigenous individuals or organizations
- Employers who hire a youth facing barrier(s) (section 2.2 [3] of Applicant guide)

For youth facing barriers, an additional $5,000 is available to cover the costs of addressing these employment barriers.

Applications will be reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis as long as funds are available.

Maximum Project Value

The Youth employment and Skills Program will contribute $9.2 million to projects that employ youth and youth facing barriers. Each project will be eligible to receive up to $14,000 in matching funds to employ one (1) intern.

Indirect Costs

Indirect costs rate is 40%

Project Duration

Projects must offer the employee meaningful agricultural work that must be completed by March 31, 2021.
