For More Information

Please see the ASRP guidelines [1] for full application information.

Description

The Alzheimer Society Research Program (ASRP) provides grants and awards to support research in Canada that promises new insights into causes, risk reduction, diagnosis, treatment and management of Alzheimer’s disease and other dementias. Brain Canada and ASC will be co-funding the New Investigator Operating Grants which are designed to help launch the careers of outstanding researchers who are within the first six (6) years of their initial academic appointment. The ASRP will provide up to $200,000 for a period of up to four (4) years. Brain Canada Foundation will co-fund up to two (2) successful applications.
