

Bank of Canada Fellowship Award - 2022

Sponsor

Bank of Canada

Description

The Fellowship Award provides financial support to academics who are recognized for their expertise and research in areas important to the Bank's core functions [1].

- It promotes collaboration and partnerships between Bank researchers and leading academics at Canadian post-secondary institutions.
- It also contributes to the education and development of Canada's researchers in fields related to the Bank's core functions.

The award is for a term of up to five years and is subject to an annual review and confirmation process.

Program details and timeline are not yet confirmed. This information will be updated when the program launches.

Eligibility

Fellowship Award nominees are required to:

- be Canadian citizens, permanent residents of Canada, or be otherwise legally permitted to work in Canada
- conduct and support research in Canada (nominations where the preponderance of the research is in Canada could also be considered)
- have obtained a PhD
- be employed by a Canadian university in a tenure or tenure-track position during the term of the Fellowship Award

The selection criteria used to assess eligible nominations includes:

- demonstrated excellence and innovation in the nominee's work as indicated by publications of refereed and other articles as well as citations and references (i.e.,

- demonstrated leadership within the discipline and/or academic institution(s) as indicated by mentoring, committee roles, collaboration, contribution to the education and development of new researchers, etc.
- applicability to Bank of Canada policy development and/or research [2], as indicated in a match of the nominee's written work and research plan with Bank plans and priorities; and as expressed in the nomination materials

The award consists of:

- a research grant of $50,000 per year per recipient
- a research expense allowance of $40,000 per year per recipient, for related research expenses and for research assistants
- a sum of $5,000 for the university for administration of the award funds

Special Notes

Please note that research activities carried out in the context of COVID-19 need to adhere to the University of Guelph COVID-19 research principles, policies, guidelines and processes as they may be updated from time to time and communicated on the Office of Research web-page [3].

How to Apply

The Vice-President (Research) encourages nominations for this prestigious award, and will serve as nominator for those nominees recommended by the Honours and Awards Advisory Committee. If you wish to nominate a colleague or to be considered for VPR nomination, please submit an Expression of Interest (EOI) to research.honours@uoguelph.ca [4] by the internal deadline.

An Expression of Interest will include:

- A draft letter (two-three pages) addressed to the VPR, signed by your ADR, which outlines how you/your nominee meets the criteria outlined on the Bank of Canada [6] Fellowship Award website.
- An up-to-date CV for nominee (and each member of the team, if applicable)

?If your nomination will be submitted by a different nominee, and therefore does not require the Vice-President's endorsement, please submit an OR-5 and a complete nomination to research.services@uoguelph.ca [5] by the external deadline.

For more information, contact research.honours@uoguelph.ca [4] or visit the Bank of Canada [6] website.
