Description

Each year, CFC invites researchers to submit an application for a Request for Proposal (RFP) for research in areas of particular interest to the chicken industry. This year CFC is partnering with Turkey Farmers of Canada (TFC) for one of the RFPs. TFC is committed to funding research to keep pace with changes on-farm and in the marketplace, maintain consumer expectations, and provide a high-quality and healthy product to Canadians. The objective of this RFP is to solicit letters of intent for:

1. Development of a novel and efficacious vaccine strategy for the prevention of avian pathogenic E.coli infection.
2. Investigating the source of Darkling beetles on Canadian broiler and turkey farms and determining the impact of common commercial pesticides (Tempo or others) vs balEnce™ (a biopesticide) on their prevalence.

Funding Availability

This project funding is separate to that provided by the Canadian Poultry Research Council (CPRC). CFC's contribution to the proposal will be limited to a maximum of $50,000 per project, with TFC contributing an additional $10,000 for research on darkling beetles, for a total of $60,000. Industry dollars, whether from CFC, TFC or other industry sources, must be matched with non-industry dollars at a ratio of at least 1:1. Higher leverage ratios are preferred.
