

CIHR Gold Leaf Prizes 2022

Sponsor

Canadian Institutes of Health Research

Description

CIHR's suite of prizes, the CIHR Gold Leaf Prizes, are among the highest honours that can be bestowed on an individual or team for excellence in health research and its translation into benefits for Canadians. Each CIHR Gold Leaf Prize has a value of $100,000. These prizes cover achievements across all pillars of research (biomedical, clinical, health services and policy, and population and public health) and will be awarded every two years.

CIHR presents a Gold Leaf Prize to a researcher in each of the following categories:

- CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Impact [1]
This prize is awarded to an individual or team for health research with a proven impact on health outcomes, practices, policies, and/or on the health system.
- CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Discovery [2]
This prize is awarded to an individual or team whose research findings are unique, inspirational and break new ground, significantly influencing knowledge in their field.
- CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Outstanding Achievements by an Early Career Investigator [3]
CIHR is committed to helping develop the next generation of great scientific minds. This prize is awarded to an investigator at the beginning of their career who shows great potential and is expected to continue to produce research of exceptional merit.
- CIHR Gold Leaf Prize for Transformation [4]
This prize is awarded for transformative leadership in a given CIHR priority area. The 2022 priority area is to be determined

CIHR believes strongly in the importance of making patient engagement part of the research process. This prize will be awarded to an individual or team that collaborates with patients, advances patient engagement as a priority and focuses on outcomes that are important to patients.

Program details and timeline are not yet confirmed. This information will be updated when the program launches.

Eligibility

- Nominations will be accepted from individuals, institutions, organizations and networks that have the ability to complete and submit the full nomination package by the deadline date.
- Nominations may be submitted for individuals or teams within the Canadian context.
- Self-nominations will not be accepted.
- For outstanding achievement by an early career investigator the nominated candidates must hold a full time research appointment (e.g., faculty appointment providing eligibility to apply for grants and/or supervise trainees) for a period of 0 to 10 years.

Prize

Each CIHR Gold Leaf Prize has a value of $100,000.
