For More Information

For more information, please view the program's guidelines, value and duration, eligibility, key dates, and application instructions [1].

Description

Global Affairs Canada and the Chinese Ministry of Education are offering short-term scholarships to Canadians wishing to study abroad in China. Scholarships are awarded for studies, research, language studies or a combination of studies and language studies at participating Chinese institutions [2].

Scholarships are available for studies and research, for a combination of studies and language studies, or for language studies only. Scholarships are not to be used towards a degree in China.

Scholarships are tenable at Chinese institutions that admit scholarship recipients of the Government of China. These institutions are marked by an asterisk (*) in the list of participating Chinese institutions [2].

For students, each award is tenable for a period of no more than 12 months and no less than four months.

For mid-career professionals and faculty members, awards are tenable for a period of no more than 12 months and no less than eight weeks.

The scholarship is tenable between September 2017 and August 2018.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be Canadian citizens residing in Canada;
- be either:
  - a full-time permanent professor or research staff at a recognized post-secondary education or research institution in Canada;
  - a student enrolled in either a college, undergraduate or graduate program at a recognized post-secondary education institution in Canada; or
  - a mid-career professional from a Canadian government, media or cultural organization, or national education association, who has a graduate studies (Master's or PhD) degree and has managerial, policy development or decision making responsibilities for at least three years with the organization;
- have achieved the required level of written and spoken Chinese by the host institution in China, if applicable;
- undertake studies in an approved subject area in a Chinese institution;
- not be seeking a degree in China; and
- be under 50 years of age.

Additional qualifications and requirements apply.
