CQDM

For More Information

Detailed guidelines and instructions for proposal submission and the selection form are available on the CQDM website [1].

Description

CQDM is searching for world-class research on novel target discovery platforms to present to domain experts from leading global pharmaceutical organizations on Nov 13, 2024.

Their objective is to bring ground-breaking, innovative Canadian research to CQDM's pharmaceutical members and facilitate interactions between CQDM pharma members and the Canadian ecosystem. Collaborative projects developed with a CQDM pharmaceutical member are eligible to obtain funding via CQDM's Quantum Leap program.

Passionate Canadian researchers and visionary teams are invited to submit innovative ideas that have the potential to transform the landscape of medicine and improve patient outcomes.

Eligibility

Canadian academic institutions, biotech companies, and research organizations are eligible to apply. Collaborative projects that involve partnerships between academia and industry are also encouraged. Multidisciplinary teams that can bring diverse expertise to the table are welcome.

How to Apply

Submit completed form directly to CQDM via email appliquez-apply@cqdm.org [2] by October 10, 2024.

All submitted projects will be shared with CQDM's pharmaceutical members for review and ranking. Top ranked projects will be selected to present to CQDM's global pharmaceutical members at a CQDM Connect-Pharma: Pitch Day on November 13, 2024.
