Description

Led by

- Amy Buckland, Head, Research & Scholarship, Library
- Carol Perry, Acting Academic Director for the Guelph BRDC

In this session, we will review the relationship between open access initiatives and trends in research funding requirements. Where do they intersect and where do data management plans come into play? Are these plans more than just another funding requirement? Join us as we explore what this all means to your research.

Full listing of sessions are available on the Faculty Information Exchange 2017-18 website.
