

Food from Thought Town Hall: Call for Digital Agriculture Research Fund Proposals

Date

Monday November 26, 2018 10:00am to 11:00am

Location

University Centre, room 441; webcast

Description

Digital technologies have transformed the way we live, connect, work, and play. Now, they're transforming the way we eat and how our food is produced. Food from Thought's Digital Agriculture Research Fund Call for Proposals invites eligible University of Guelph faculty to submit proposals to lead this shift in the ag space through cutting-edge digital agricultural research.

Join in at the Town Hall to learn more and to ask Food from Thought fund administrators questions about the Digital Agriculture Research Fund.

Format:

- Presentation on the Digital Agriculture Research Fund by Food from Thought Project Director, Simon Glauser
- Question and Answer period

The presentation will be available via webcast, and we will take questions live through the webcast. Note that the webcast is audio-only.
