

Holberg International Memorial Prize - 2020 Nomination

Sponsor

Norwegian Government

Description

The Holberg Prize was established by the Norwegian Parliament in 2003 and is awarded annually to a scholar who has made outstanding contributions to research in the arts and humanities, social sciences, law or theology. The prize may be awarded both for work within a particular academic discipline and for work of a cross disciplinary nature. The prize winner must have had a decisive influence on international research.

Eligibility

Scholars holding positions at universities and other research institutions, including academies, are entitled to nominate candidates to the Holberg Prize. Self-nominations are not allowed.

Prize

The Prize amount is NOK 6,000,000 (approximately EUR 760,000 / USD 617,000).

Deadlines

If College-level review is required, your College will communicate its earlier internal deadlines.

Type	Date	Notes
	5:00pm	If your nomination will be submitted by a nominator other than the VPR, please submit directly to the sponsor by the external deadline. Please also submit a copy of the full nomination and OR-5 to research.services@uoguelph.ca . [2]

How to Apply

The Vice-President (Research) encourages nominations for this prestigious award, and will serve as nominator for those nominees recommended by the Awards Advisory Committee. If you wish to nominate a colleague or to be considered for VPR nomination, please alert your Associate Dean (Research) and submit an Expression of Interest (EOI) by the internal deadline.

An Expression of Interest will include:

- A draft letter (two-three pages) addressed to the VPR which outlines how you/your nominee meets the criteria outlined on the About the Holberg Prize [3] webpage.
- An up-to-date CV (up to 10 pages) for nominee (and each member of the team, if applicable);

If your nomination will be submitted by a different nominee, and therefore does not require the Vice-President's endorsement, please submit OR-5 and complete nomination by the external deadline.
