

Queen Elizabeth II Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship 2024

Description

This medal program honours individuals for their exceptional long-term efforts and outstanding contributions to the well-being of their communities throughout the province.

Originally called the Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship (OMGC), this honour was first presented in 1973 by Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II at Queen's Park during a Royal Visit.

In 2024, it was officially renamed the Queen Elizabeth II Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship (QEIIOMGC), to recognize how recipients' contributions reflect Her Late Majesty's renowned sense of duty and exemplary service.

To be eligible for this honour, the nominee must be a model Ontarian who demonstrates:

- civic-mindedness
- integrity
- community leadership

Eligibility

The person you nominate (the nominee) must be a resident of Ontario and must have contributed to areas that are meaningful to Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II: the environment, arts and culture, seniors and aging, education and youth, community and civic engagement, healthcare and hospices, social clubs, history and heritage, sport and recreation, faith and animal care.

You cannot nominate:

- yourself
- someone who has passed away
- an elected federal, provincial or municipal representative currently in office
- a public appointee if their achievements relate to their current appointment
- someone for acts of bravery

Prize

The winner is presented with a medal.
