Description

Mitacs has partnered with India's Ministry of Human Resources Development to offer the Globalink Research Award – MHRD India, which supports Canadian student travel to India for research collaborations.

Eligibility

Senior undergrads and graduate students in Canada. Students must be registered for full-time senior undergraduate or graduate (master's or PhD) studies at Canadian university and remain as such during the Globalink Research Awards – MHRD India. Students must also identify a recognized faculty member at one of the seven eligible IIT institutions (Bombay, Guwahati, Hyderabad, Kanpur, Kharagpur, Gandhinagar or Roorkee) and meet all necessary travel requirements for the intended destination. The home supervisor must be a faculty member at a Canadian university who is eligible to supervise graduate students and can hold Tri-Council funding. Students are eligible to receive only one Mitacs Globalink Research Award per academic lifetime.

Funding Availability

Successful applicants receive $5,000 for travel related expenses including return airfare, visa reimbursement and health/medical insurance. MHRD will provide a local grant equivalent of $5,000 CAD to cover accommodation, research, and local expenses associated with the research project.

Project Duration

12 weeks; Projects can start as early as February 2016 and as late as December 31, 2016.

Special Notes

Travel to the destination prior to the approval of the award is not permitted and Mitacs and MHRD are not responsible for any costs incurred before the application is approved. Travel may not be initiated until Mitacs has received all paperwork including the International Pre-departure form, Mitacs Student Code of Conduct and Ethics Form, and the application has been approved.
