Ericsson Request for Proposal

Description

Ericsson is soliciting projects from researchers across Canada for the purposes of strengthening Canada's Information and Communications Technology (ICT) ecosystem and to enhance its vision of a Networked Society. Proposals must benefit Ericsson's business in Canada and internationally.

Areas of focus include, but are not limited to the following subjects:

- Operator Support Systems - OSS
- Business Support Systems - BSS
- TV and Media Systems
- Cloud Technologies
- Network Function Virtualization - NFV
- Software Defined Networks - SDN
- 5G
- LTE
- Context Aware Communications
- Media Coding
- Data & Knowledge
- Security
- Internet of Things
- User Experience
- Next generation IP network
- Next generation fixed and mobile broadband technologies (ie. 5G)
- Heterogeneous networks and small cells
- Smart Grid communications
- Software engineering
- Machine-to-machine communications
- Internet of the future
- Business model research
- Social implications of a networked society

Published on Research Alerts (<https://www.uoguelph.ca/research/alerts>)

- Energy efficiency of infrastructure
- Virtualization
- Smart Cities
- Content Distribution Networks
- Data Center Architecture & Management
- Applications of networked society such as e-health, m-health, intelligent transportation systems, security or cyber-security

Direct project costs are shared by Ericsson and potentially funding agencies such as MITACS or NSERC, depending on eligibility.

Projects that focus on the application of existing technology, provide routine analysis, collect data without interpreting underlying mechanisms, or provide professional practice or consulting services (contract research) are not eligible. Similarly, proposals that involve the set-up and operational management of an institute, a formal or informal group of researchers, or that are principally associated with the acquisition and maintenance of scientific equipment will not be considered.
