
MTCU – Call for Proposals for 2016-2017 Ontario Human Capital Research and Innovation Fund

Sponsor

Ontario Ministry of Training Colleges and Universities (MTCU)

Program

Ontario Human Capital Research and Innovation Fund (OHCRIIF)

Description

The purpose of the 2016-17 Call for Proposals is to fund research and review projects that improve knowledge in the areas of postsecondary education, labour market, and employment and training policy. OHCRIIF funds research and innovation projects that align with the priorities of the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities (MTCU).

MTCU accepts proposals related to:

- Skills and return on investment
- Postsecondary education (PSE) and training policies
- Labour market programs, policy and service delivery

Eligibility

The OHCRIIF competition is open to the following categories of principal applicants:

- Academic researchers and postdoctoral fellows;
- Non-faculty postsecondary researchers;
- Researchers at broader public sector or non-profit organizations;
- Doctoral students; and
- Other qualified researchers (i.e. individuals affiliated with research firms).

OHCRIIF applicants are required to be affiliated with an institution or organization that is a legal entity in Canada. Applicants affiliated with a public sector organization or post-secondary institutions should apply through these institutions.

PhD students are encouraged to apply as principal applicants under the Doctoral stream, but should be endorsed by a faculty advisor who will provide support and mentorship for the project. The faculty advisor must be affiliated with a publicly-assisted university or College of Applied Arts and Technology in Ontario and could be from a different institution.
